BUSINESS, COMPUTER SCIENCE & IT CAREER PATHWAY

PREPARE FOR A HIGH-PAYING FUTURE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE.

Our world operates on digital information platforms – and their creation, maintenance, and further development mean well-paying, in-demand jobs.

TCC designed its Associate of Science in Computer Science for students who plan to transfer to a four-year college or university to pursue a bachelor's degree in computer science.

PROGRAM

ASSOCIATE OF SCIENCE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

Complete in as few as 4 semesters / 61 credits / 100% Online

TCC's professors will take you all the way from problem-solving through computer applications to programming to advanced concepts, such as virtual memory. Much of the classroom instruction takes place in labs with ready access to computers, and you can complete assignments at home using free software made available to students.
