

HUMAN SERVICES

SOCIAL SCIENCES & EDUCATION CAREER PATHWAY

HELP CHANGE PEOPLE'S LIVE FOR THE BETTER!

Prepare for a variety of careers in the industry, from case-management aide to community outreach worker to life-skills counselor to gerontology aide to mental health aide.

Taught by practicing human services professionals, TCC's comprehensive human services curriculum includes two hands-on internships. Real world experience working with local agencies will help you build professional networks, establish references, and utilize skills learned in the classroom. Students typically intern under the direction of a professional in human or social services in fields such as outreach, psychiatry, and psychology.

After completing the program, you can enter the field of human services immediately or transfer credits toward a bachelor's degree from a four-year institution.

PROGRAM

ASSOCIATE OF APPLIED SCIENCE IN HUMAN SERVICES

Complete in as few as 4 semesters / 65 credits

Gain the skills you need to provide much-needed support for teens in crisis, families, the elderly, and countless others. Your course work teaches basic counseling skills, various functions of crisis intervention, the management principles of human and social service, and the skills needed to address the needs of patients and clients.
